1. The client has a responsibility to familiarise him/her with the rules relating to the hire of equipment from Tromsø Natur og Fritid.
2. The hire period applies for the dates stipulated above. Agreement must be reached if the equipment is collected before or returned after the stated dates. The equipment shall be collected from and returned to our depot at Sjøgata 14, Tromsø. Special arrangements may be made for the collection and return of equipment at other sites.
3. The client is responsible for all equipment. The client is recommended to check that the equipment is complete prior to commencement of the hire period.
4. The client is obliged to return all equipment in the same condition as they collected it. Any loses or damage over and above normal ware and tear shall be compensated in accordance with this contract as determined by the hirer.
5. The equipment must be returned dry and packed. If a tent or other equipment must be dried after its return to Tromsø Natur og Fritid, any costs relating to this must be agreed in advance.
6. On-hiring of the equipment to a third party is not permitted.
7. Breaches of the above rules may lead to the hirer demanding the equipment's immediate return without refund for monies paid.
8. All use of the equipment is at the client's own risk, and the client bears full responsibility for any loss or damage which arises during the hire period. The client is also responsible for any other person who he/she allows to use the equipment. The hire of equipment is at the client's own risk. Tromsø Natur og Fritid assumes no financial responsibility for loss or injury to people, property, business affairs or the like which arises through use of the hired equipment.
